

Brides-to-be Are Honored at Party in Rigg Home

The Misses Wilma Whitney and Dorothy Shaw were feted at a gala party when Mrs. Ralph Rigg entertained at her home, 1008 Acacia avenue, last Wednesday evening with a May Day shower honoring both girls whose weddings will take place within the next few weeks.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses for the occasion and games pertaining to the shower were enjoyed. Refreshments of angel cake and ice cream, served in diminutive flower pots, carried out the May Day theme, while crepe paper wedding bells and streamers accentuated the bridal motif.

Miss Whitney, whose wedding to Thomas Lawrence Parker will be solemnized May 31, was presented with a gift of silverware serving pieces while Miss Shaw, who will marry Chester Reed of Long Beach early in June, received a set of glassware cooking dishes.

Those present in addition to the guests of honor were the Misses Norma Peters of Huntington Park, Jean Russell of Redondo Beach, Jean Hosking and Mesdames John Mason, E. J. Hosking, Messrs. Tom Parker, Chester Reed of Long Beach, Dick Diebickson of Los Angeles, Paul Hippik, Glen Arrasmith of Long Beach, Alfred Mason and the hostess.

Other guests of honor included Mesdames S. C. Murray and J. Marriott, president and president-elect of Lomita-San Pedro council; J. O. Bishop, president-elect of Torrance high school P.T.A.; H. R. Lee and W. H. Tolson, president and president-elect of Torrance Elementary P.T.A.; M. Gouker and Roy Palmer, president and president-elect of Waverly P.T.A., and L. A. Stump, leader of Consumer education.

"Thirteen Golden Cities" and "The Middletons Go to the World's Fair" provided the entertainment arranged by Mrs. John Garner, radio chairman of Lomita-San Pedro Council and Fern Avenue P.T.A.

Awarded the "gold seal" for its completeness, the Fern Avenue P.T.A. publicity record book, bound in blue imitation leather, has been returned from the Tenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers. The volume is a distinct credit to Mrs. L. F. Watson, publicity chairman.

Attached to the book is the complimentary notice: "Fern Avenue P.T.A.: You have served nobly as a press chairman. Good, continuous publicity. Well written, informative articles. Excellent follow-ups. Good inside publicity. A neat book. Seal of award."

Most of its contents are clippings from The Herald, it is noticed, arranged in the order of their appearance in this newspaper. The book is dedicated to Mrs. J. J. Millard, president of the unit, and will be presented to her on Founders' Day of the ensuing year.

Members of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters, in bringing their annual doughnut sale to a close will deliver doughnuts for which orders have been placed during the last few weeks on Saturday, May 11. Cooperation of all members is requested in making the deliveries.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Robinson, 2014 Torrance boulevard, are the proud parents of a six-pound 11-ounce daughter, born at an Alhambra hospital May 4. Robinson is an employe of the National Supply Company.

Steinhilber Honored on Retiring As Guardian of Job's Daughters

Frank H. Steinhilber, who has served as associate guardian of Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters, was made a "member of honor" at an impressive ceremony held at Masonic Temple Tuesday evening. A personal gift was presented by past honored queens who had served during his years of office, including Jean Smith, Marcella Kimball, Edith Corbett Brack, Jane Roberts, Ethel Ward Derouin, Joy Fossum, Olive Belle Schroeder, Mary Ann Bradford, Jane Johnston, Shirley Johnson, Doris Kresse, Marian Spegeher and Marjorie Page.

In recognition of his untiring service during his term of office, the retiring officer was presented with a handsome set of bronze book-ends, Alfred E. Kerber was inducted into the office of associate guardian by the past guardian, Mrs. Louise Johnson.

Past guardians Mrs. Louise Johnson and Mrs. Mabel Steinhilber were given bachel honors. Mrs. O. A. Kresse, past council member, was introduced from the side lines as "member of honor."

At the close of the evening the members retired to the banquet room, beautiful with purple and white blossoms, where refreshments were served.

Miss Hazel Clark Complimented at Smith Home Party

One of the prettiest parties of the week was enjoyed at the Rolling Hills home of Mrs. Alden Smith when she entertained with a linen shower Saturday evening as a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Hazel Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clark of Torrance. Miss Clark's wedding to William Parsons will be early in June.

A bridal motif was carried out in elaborate detail. Following an evening of games, refreshments of angel cake and molded ice cream wedding bells were served. Guests invited to the affair were Mesdames Tom Ashe (Catherine Probert) and Frank Schoppe (Jeanette Probert), both of South Gate; Roy McKenzie of Glendale, Edith Bau of North Hollywood, Frank Blecha of Burbank, Mary Mitchell of Duarte, Arthur Hodge of Lomita, J. O. Bishop, N. F. Jamieson, George Probert, C. L. Ingold, Lois Clark, O. W. Hudson, Frank Clark, Lois Lisoni, Mabel Boynton, Vivian Grant, Melvina Beckwith, Florence Welz, Harold Carpenter and the Misses Alice Hodge of Lomita, Marguerite and Eva Jones of Palos Verdes, Margaret Tiffany, Marjorie Huber and the hostess.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry G. Banks welcomed a new granddaughter Tuesday when a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Paul Wageman of Moorpark. The Banks called at the Oxnard hospital to see the baby this week.

Those who took part in the reception were Frances Thobias, Mary Louise Acord, Dolores Fulton, Richard Mitchell, Billy Morgan, Betsy Ruth Morgan, Barbara Woodcock, Barbara Carjens and Doris Robinette. Following the program refreshments were served.

The wedding of Edwin Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Wood, 2130 Sepulveda boulevard, to Miss Margie Woodruff, daughter of Mrs. Eunice Woodruff of San Pedro took place at Las Vegas Monday, April 27. Wood, an employe of Northrup Aircraft Corporation, is a graduate of Torrance high, class of 1935.

A reception and dinner for relatives and friends was given at the bride's home following the wedding, while Mr. and Mrs. Wood entertained with a dinner party at their home last Sunday. Included were the bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Hayward (Peggy Wood) of Inglewood. Covers were placed for 18.

Women of Moose Continue Active Service in City

Mrs. Anna Carlson, 1723 Andree avenue, will entertain with a Mothers' Day luncheon and card party at her home tomorrow, May 10, at 12 noon. Games of bridge, pinocle, 500 and bunco will be played and tallies at 25 cents may be secured from the hostess. The public is cordially invited.

There will be no meeting at the hall Friday evening, according to Mrs. Katherine Gossiaux, Torrance chapter senior regent. Members of the child care and training committee met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Stevenson last Wednesday where instructions in handwork were given by Mrs. Gossiaux, and a paper on child care was read by Mrs. Ruth Kidd, child care and training chairman.

Homemaking chairman, Mrs. Irene Vincent, announces that Mrs. Auguste Barnett will entertain the homemaking committee at 2007 Andree avenue, Wednesday, May 22, at 10 a. m. This meeting is open to the public.

Mrs. Clara Johnson and Mrs. Lela Heglin who were obligated into the chapter Friday evening will be initiated at S. C. district conference on chapter development to be held at Whittier, May 16.

NATAL DATE IS NOTED The 20th birthday of Harold Massie provided the incentive for an attractively appointed surprise dinner-party when his mother entertained at the family home, 1318 Engracia avenue, Friday evening. Pink rosebuds in attractive arrangement were used for the center of the dining table and gardenias were attached to the girls' place cards, and white carnation boutonnieres were provided for the boys. Those present were the Misses Phyllis Schultz, Jean Hathaway of Lomita, Janet Tille of Los Angeles, Dorothy Lucas and Betty Spaug of Gardena; and Messrs. Bill Stewart, Sherman Bross, Dick Beecher, Bert Lamb, the honoree and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Massie.

Mrs. Buffington's Piano Students Present Recital

Piano students of Kathryn Buffington prepared a delightful program of solos, duets, trios and two-piano numbers for the enjoyment of their mothers and friends on Saturday afternoon at the studio, 1533 Marcella avenue. The ensemble numbers provided variety and interest to the program and showed excellent preparation on the part of the students.

An exceptionally interesting feature was the puppet show presented by Carol and Ramona Debra who wrote the skit and designed the puppets and their little theatre. Richard Honrath and his teacher, Mr. Meter entertained with a violin duet providing a delightful contrast to the piano numbers. Senior girls presented the second half of the program and pleased the audience with solos and two-piano numbers.

Each month students have an opportunity to present material which they have prepared and also gain valuable experience playing for others.

A two-piano arrangement was used as the accompaniment for the singing of "God Bless America" by the audience. Mary Louise Acord and Richard Mitchell played, while Mrs. Buffington accompanied at the second piano.

Those present were the Misses Phyllis Schultz, Jean Hathaway of Lomita, Janet Tille of Los Angeles, Dorothy Lucas and Betty Spaug of Gardena; and Messrs. Bill Stewart, Sherman Bross, Dick Beecher, Bert Lamb, the honoree and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Massie.
